3. The Cultural Affairs Department of the DDR Foreign Ministry has been abolished as such and put under the Political Affairs Department. Florin remains head of the latter and Walter Freund becomes his assistant. Successor to Freund as head of the Consular Department is Kurt Prezel. With the dissolution of the Cultural Affairs Department, the former head of it, Schatter, has been dismissed. Schatter was considered by the SED as unprogressive. He is said to be a student of the classics and at bottom not in sympathy with the communist ideology.

persons appeared in the market place to hear him. Many persons in the crowd were heard to mutter disapproval of Dertinger, in general reproaching him for having sold out to the communists. The children present, however, were noticeably enthusiastic.

6. The DDR Foreign Ministry is preparing a diplomatic mission to send to Albania, but details are not yet known. Treaties are still planned for the summer of 1950 between the DDR and Rumania and Bulgaria.
